Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 19-26, drawn to a method of manufacturing a diaper, classified in class 156, subclass 209.
- II. Claims 27-46, drawn to a method to emboss a sheet, classified in class 264, subclass 284.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the omission of details of the claimed subcombination (group II) in the combination (group I) claim is evidence that the patentability of the combination does not rely on the details of the specific subcombination. The subcombination has separate utility such as in embossing sheets to be used alone (e.g. as paper towels) or to be used in formation of articles other than diapers.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1733

4. A telephone call was made to Daniel Jones on September 24, 2003 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
